

From my own experience, moving to another country can be challenging because of communication problems, different culture and new environment. International students may face difficulties when adapting to University life, but our Student Welfare Committee is here to help. We organise regular engagement sessions with Faculties and counsellors and welcome feedback.

Chairperson
Ms Daria Morozova

